

Liz Stringer - Public Performance and Transmission Rights

These are the direct licensing guidelines for the releases of Liz Stringer.

If you wish to use a sound recording or music video owned and/or controlled by Liz Stringer (“Liz Stringer Catalogue”) for the purposes of public performance or transmission, you will require a licence to do so.

Liz Stringer does not offer direct licensing for public performance and/or transmission of the Liz Stringer Catalogue at this time due to the unjustifiable legal and administrative expenses involved in same.

If you require a licence for the public performance or transmission of any of the Liz Stringer Catalogue please contact the Phonographic Performance Company of Australia (PPCA) on (02) 8569 1111 or www.pcca.com.au.

If you wish to provide any feedback or comments on our direct licensing policy, please email cat@thebookingstable.com

Other licences not available through PPCA

Please contact Liz Stringer should you require a licence for the following purposes:

- Licences for DJs
- Licences for samples, mixes or mashup CDs
- Licences for on-demand “streaming”
- Synchronisation licences for music for film or television
- Licences for CD or DVD Compilations

To enquire about any of the above licenses, or any other licenses not covered herein, please contact Cat Leahy on 0438202565 or email cat@thebookingstable.com